You don't have to be a math major to see that the Legislature did NOT provide for equal parenting time last session. The Texas Family Law Foundation would like for you to believe they did, but it's simply not true.

- Equal parenting will minimize litigation by removing children from the legal battle.
- Parents will spend less money on litigation which allows more money for their children's needs.
- Children will no longer be used as pawns in a tug of war between parents.
- Mothers will have far more free time to advance their careers and earn higher wages.
- Mothers will not have to take off work every time a child is sick or can't go to school.
- And most importantly, according to the science, CHILDREN will benefit the most from equal parenting!
